

Exotic and Invasive Alien Species Workshop
January 22-23, 2008
Pepsi Center, Corner Brook, NL
Agenda

Tuesday - January 22, 2008

- 8:30-9:00 Registration
- 9:00-9:15 Welcome
- 9:15-9:45 Canada's Invasive Alien Species Strategy – Mark Richardson
- 9:45-10:15 Canadian Invasive Plant Framework – Bruno Gallant
- 10:10–10:45 Break
- 10:45-11:15 The Invasive Alien Species Partnership Program - Mark Richardson
- 11:15-12:00 Legislation Review – Shelley Pardy Moores
- 12:00-1:00 Lunch (Provided)
- 1:00-2:30 Perspectives, Roles and Responsibilities of Sectors
- Department of Natural Resources - Agrifoods Development Branch
 - Department of Natural Resources – Silviculture and Research Division
 - Plant Protection Program in Newfoundland and Labrador – Canadian Food Inspections Agency
 - Department of Fisheries and Aquaculture
 - Wildlife Division
 - Aquatic Invasive Species: Perspectives from DFO
 - Transportation and Works
 - Parks and Natural Areas
- 2:30-2:45 Break
- 2:45- 4:00 Group discussions and reports
- 4:00-4:15 Wrap up and Close

Exotic and Invasive Alien Species Workshop
January 22-23, 2008
Pepsi Center, Corner Brook, NL
Agenda

Wednesday – January 23, 2008

- 8:30-9:00 Registration
- 9:00-9:40 Diversity of non-native arthropods in Newfoundland and Labrador - Dave Langor and Laura DeHaas
- 9:40-10:30 Current knowledge and research
- Impacts of hyperabundant moose on forest regeneration in Terra Nova and Gros Morne National Park – John Gosse
 - Canada thistle: An invasive alien plant in our “neck of the woods” – Jessica Humber
- 10:30-10:45 Break
- 10:45-12:00 Current knowledge and research (continued)
- Red squirrel predation on Balsam Fir cones - Kofi Boa-Antwi
 - Changes in the small mammal community following introduction of the Red-back Vole: Implications for community ecology - B.Hearn, W.Curran, D. Snow, G. Knee, and G. Strickland
 - Mushroom BFAs - Andrus Voitk
- 12:00-1:00 Lunch (Provided)
- 1:00-1:30 Eyes Across the Province, MUN Botanical Gardens - Joy Barfoot
- 1:30-2:00 Monitoring and Management of Aquatic Invasive Species in Newfoundland and Labrador - Geoff Perry
- 2:00-2:30 Developing a Monitoring Strategy - Amanda Park
- 2:30-2:45 Break
- 2:45-4:00 Discussion – How to move forward with the development of a provincial monitoring plan
- 4:00-4:30 Wrap up and Close